

Representations for 2012

November 2012

- Simon Ngona attended the fifth SADC regional training workshop on Competition and Consumer Law Policy in South Africa on November 13-14, 2012.

September 2012

- Tommy Singongi attended the DTIS Review Inception Meeting at the Ministry of Commerce, Trade and Industry, Lusaka, Zambia, on September 20, 2012.

June 2012

- Simon Ngóna attended multi-stakeholders' consultation on the draft business plan of the African Mineral Development Centre (AMDC) organised by Canadian International Development Agency at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia on June 25-26, 2012.
- Simon Ngóna attended a meeting organised by the LDC Watch in collaboration with the UN Economic Commission for Africa (ECA), and UN-OHRLLS Addis Ababa, Ethiopia on June 13-14, 2012.
- Lee Haamunji attended a consultative workshop Hire Purchase Act CAP 399 of the Laws of Zambia organised by the Ministry of Commerce, Trade & Industry, on June 11-12, 2012.

April 2012

- Andrew Sinyangwe attended a workshop organised by Centre for Trade and Development whose theme was ensuring international tax rules work for developing countries, is there a common agenda for government and citizen? At Lusaka, Zambia, on April 20, 2012.

March 2012

- Tommy Singongi attended a Regulatory Impact Assessment (RIA) awareness workshop conducted by the Private Sector Development Reform Programme (PSDRP) at Lusaka, Zambia on March 21, 2012. The main purpose of the workshop was to raise awareness of the Regulatory Impact Assessment as well as foster a greater level of ownership of the process by private sector players.

January 2012

- Simon Ngona and Candy Musonda (intern) attended a CCPC Leniency Programme on January 27, 2012. The main purpose of the workshop was to engage stakeholders in discussing the draft Leniency Programme provided by the Commission with a view of getting more input in preparation for a final draft.